Q. Do you have set configurations for laying out the tables in the main hall (for instance for a wedding reception?)

A. Please see suggestions below:

Main Hall Table seating capacity using round tables (maximum of 70 people)

Round Tables 3 x 6ft = 36, 2 x 5ft = 20 = 56 person (is possible to sit 70 but is a squash with no area to move around tables for serving) plus

Balcony 4 x 6ft go-pak tables = 14 people.

Would leave 8 6ft go-pak tables for use in the Billiard Room (for buffet food/drink)

Main Hall Table seating capacity using 6ft rectangular tables (maximum of 88 people)

Use 12 tables in a horseshoe shape. 2 at top, 5 down each side (making sure not to block doors.)
Maximum of 8 on top tables plus
20 people along both long sides = 80 people (once tables are laid there will be no space for dishes etc.)

Or

20 people along one long side = 40 people

Would leave no more tables for use in Balcony or Billiard Room.

Main Hall Table seating capacity using 6ft rectangular tables (maximum of 80 people)

Use 10 tables in a herringbone design seating a maximum of 80 people
Maximum at each table along sides and each end = 8 people (once tables are laid there will be no space for dishes etc.) more comfortably would be 3 on each long side = 6 people therefore seating 60 people in total.

Would leave 2 tables for use in Balcony or Billiard Room. There would be space for these 2 tables to be set up in front of the stage as a buffet table.

Sound system

Q. Does the hall have a sound system?

A. No

Alcohol:

Q. I would like to give my guests an alcoholic drink free of charge do I need a licence?

A. As long as you are not selling alcohol you do not need a licence; however, you do need to indicate that alcohol will be served on the booking form. You will be held responsible and accountable for any under-age drinking or alcohol-induced misbehaviour on the property including the car park. Please note that we, the Aldermaston Parish Hall Committee do not allow the consumption of alcoholic drinks on site by persons under the age of 18 years

Q. I would like to sell alcohol at my event, can I do this?

A. Yes, but you will need to indicate this on the booking form and you then need to apply for a 'TEN's licence. A copy of this licence will need to be sent to the booking secretary a month in advance of your event and will also need to be displayed at your event. Please note: Only 15 TEN's licences are allowed in any given year for the hall. You will be held responsible and accountable for any under-age drinking or alcohol-induced misbehaviour on the property including the car park. Please note that we the Aldermaston Parish Hall Committee do not allow the consumption of alcoholic drinks on site by persons under the age of 18 years.
